E. IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Access to medical reports Act 1988

Before giving your consent to us obtaining a Medical Report, you should read the following information as it sets out your rights under the above act.

- › When dealing with your claim, we may need to apply for a medical report from a doctor who has treated you. We need your consent to apply for a report.
- › You do have the right not to give consent, but if you do so we may not be able to process your claim.
- › If we need a report we will write to you to tell you the date it was requested.
- › If you allow us to seek a medical report from a doctor who has treated you, you can indicate in the box above if you wish to see the report (or have a copy of it) before it is sent to us. If you would like to see the report, you will have 21 days to contact the doctor about arrangements for you to see the report. If the 21 days lapses and these arrangements have not been made then the doctor will send us the report.
- › If you disagree with the information in the report, you can contact the doctor to change it. If the doctor does not agree with you, they will ask you to write a statement which includes your views and this will be attached to the report.
- › The doctor does not have to show you parts of the medical report if they think it could cause harm to your physical or mental health.
- › If the doctor does not want you to see part of their report, they will tell you in writing, but you can still view other parts of the report.
- › You can ask the doctor to see the report at any time within six months of the doctor sending it to us.
- › Your doctor may charge you for a copy of the report. This charge is not covered by your policy.

Data Privacy

For full information about how we process and protect your personal information please refer to our Privacy Policy which can be viewed by clicking on the site terms and conditions on our website www.april-international.com.

How We Use Your Information

The personal information, provided by you (or anyone acting on your behalf), is collected by or on our behalf and may be used by us, our employees, agents and service providers acting under our instruction for the purposes of insurance administration, underwriting, claims handling, insurance mediation, research or for statistical purposes.

We may process your information for a number of different purposes. For each purpose we must have a legal ground for such processing. When the information that we process is classed as 'special category data, we must have a specific additional legal ground for such processing.

Generally, we will rely on the following legal grounds:

- › It is necessary for us to process your personal information to provide this policy and services related to it. We will rely on this for activities such as providing you with information about your quote, assessing your application, managing your policy, handling claims and providing other services to you.

- › We have an appropriate business need to process your personal information and such business need does not cause harm to you. We will rely on this for activities such as maintaining our business records, developing, improving our products and services, and providing information about our products and services to you.
- › We have a legal or regulatory obligation to use such personal information.
- › We need to use such personal information to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights.
- › You have provided your consent to our use of your personal information, including special category data.

How we share your information

In order to sell, manage and provide our products and services, prevent fraud and comply with legal and regulatory requirements, we may need to share your information with the following types of third parties:

- › Insurers, Reinsurers, Regulators and Authorised/Statutory Bodies
- › Fraud prevention agencies
- › Crime prevention agencies, including the police
- › Suppliers carrying out a service on our behalf
- › Other insurers, business partners and agents
- › Other companies within the APRIL Group

As we operate as part of a global business, we may transfer your personal information outside the European Economic Area (EEA) for these purposes where adequate protection is in place.

Marketing

We will not use your information or pass it on to any other person for the purposes of marketing further products or services to you unless you have consented to this.

Fraud Prevention and Detection

In order to prevent or detect fraud and money laundering we may check your details with fraud prevention agencies and sanction websites, who may record a search. Searches may also be made against other insurers' databases. If fraud is suspected, information will be shared with those insurers. Other users of the fraud prevention agencies may use this information in their own decision making processes.

We may also conduct credit reference checks in certain circumstances. You can find further details in our full Privacy Policy explaining how the information held by fraud prevention agencies may be used.

Automated Decisions

We may use automated tools with decision making to assess your application for insurance and for claims handling processes. If you object to an automated decision, we may not be able to offer you an insurance quotation.

Contact Us

Please contact us if you have any questions about our privacy policy or the information we hold about you.

Please note that APRIL International Care has authority from the insurers to handle claims on their behalf subject to certain limitations. If you do not wish us to act on this claim as an agent of both yourself and insurers, you should advise us by return and we will arrange for handling of your claim to be managed by insurers themselves.
