International health insurance: what if it was easy?

As you know, healthcare costs abroad vary significantly from one country to another and can escalate quickly. Often, the coverage you have in your home country or through your parents is not valid overseas.

That's why APRIL developed international insurance products tailored to meet the specific needs of students abroad.

Designed for stays shorter than a year, MyStudies Cover replaces your home country's social security and private health insurance. This prevents excessive healthcare expenses, which can be particularly burdensome for students.

Healthcare costs across the globe

Depending on the region, healthcare costs are skyrocketing

In some countries, we see a consistent rise in the cost of care at private clinics and hospitals, mainly targeting expatriates. These private facilities often charge unregulated and exorbitant fees, far exceeding those in the public sector. They may also tend to prescribe excessive treatments, unnecessarily extend hospital stays, and recommend non-essential procedures.

To help you navigate this, our medical teams are available to advise you on the best facilities, review your proposed treatments and, if needed, confidentially connect you with renowned medical experts for a second medical opinion.

Quality of infrastructure varies from country to country

Access to quality medical care can be challenging in certain regions of the world, such as Southeast Asia or Africa. At APRIL International, we have partnered with leading medical facilities in these areas and regularly arrange medical evacuations to more suitable countries when necessary. We ensure you have access to the best possible care, no matter where you are located.

*The displayed costs reflect cases treated by our medical team.
The exchange rates used were those in effect at the time the care was provided.*

Examples of reimbursements

An example of medical costs in the United States

"Léa is in the United States for a university exchange. She visits a local GP, which costs her $228. With her MyStudies Cover policy (Comfort plan), she will be reimbursed 100% of the actual expenses, i.e. $228."

An example of medical costs in Canada

"Illyas has secured an internship in Montreal, Canada, as part of his studies. A few weeks after his arrival, he rushes to the dentist for an emergency treatment to relieve severe toothache. This urgent care costs him $450. His MyStudies Cover policy (Comfort plan) will reimburse him $400, leaving $50 at his expense."

An example of medical costs in France

"Maria is in France for 8 months as part of a double-degree programme with an engineering school. The GP she consults in Lyon prescribes an MRI scan. Following this radiology procedure, she must pay €150. Her MyStudies Cover policy (Comfort plan) provides 100% reimbursement of actual expenses for this type of care. She is therefore reimbursed in full, i.e. €150."

An example of emergency hospitalisation in Indonesia

"Following a mosquito bite carrying dengue fever, Mathieu must be hospitalised urgently. Having arrived two months earlier in Indonesia for an au pair stay, he is taken to the nearest hospital. The cost of the hospitalisation amounts to USD 10,000. Thanks to his MyStudies Cover policy (Emergency plan), he is fully covered and will not have anything to pay for this stay."
